

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

A BEAUTIFUL wedding took place at 11 o'clock yesterday in Broad Street Methodist Church, when Miss Virginia Carroll, Kelly, daughter of the Rev. G. C. Kelly, D. D., became the bride of Mr. Howell Conston Featherston, son of the Hon. and Mrs. John C. Featherston, of Lynchburg. The bride's father, Rev. Gilby Campbell Kelly, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The attendants were Miss Florence Kelly, sister of the bride, who was her maid of honor; Miss Laura Bang, of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Grace Briggs, of this city, as maids. Miss Nannie Kelly, another sister of the bride, and Miss Jean Alexander, were flower girls. The best man was Mr. John Haythe, of Lynchburg. Mr. Walter Fauntleroy, of Lynchburg, and the Hon. Carl Notting, of Trevillian, were groomsmen. The ushers were Mr. David Powers, of Caroline; Mr. R. C. Blackford, of Lynchburg; Mr. George E. White, of Richmond, and Hon. James Townsend, of Washington.

The church was beautifully decorated for the wedding in palms and other potted plants. Professor Reinhardt played the wedding march, with the violin accompaniment.

The bride wore an exquisite imported gown of crepe satin trimmed with pearls and old rose point, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. She entered the church with Hon. Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, and was given away by him.

Her maid of honor, Miss Florence Kelly, was very dainty in a costume of yellow messaline and a large white picture hat, carrying yellow jonquils in her arms. Miss Kelly's bridesmaids also carried bouquets of jonquils, and made a graceful picture in their dresses of white messaline with yellow sashes and slippers, while their white leg-horn hats were draped in corn-colored scarfs. The little flower girls wore white lingele frocks and carried baskets of narcissi and mimosaes. The whole bridal party and the out-of-town guests who came here to attend the wedding were entertained on Wednesday night in the bride's home.

Among them were Hon. J. C. Featherston and Mrs. Featherston, of Lynchburg; Hon. Carter Glass and Mrs. Glass, Senator John W. Duerst, Mrs. John W. Carroll, Mrs. Charles L. Levy, Mrs. Emory Hughes, Miss Jean Alexander, Mrs. John Haythe, Mr. Conston Blackford, Mr. Dan Sales, of Lynchburg; Mr. Walter Fauntleroy, of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Featherston, of Washington; Miss Florence Hanna, of Baltimore; Dr. and Mrs. L. Webster Fox, of Philadelphia; Colonel and Mrs. E. F. Clay, of Kentucky; Mrs. W. E. Graves, of St. Louis; Miss Laura Bang, of Nashville; Mr. Carl Notting, of Trevillian; Senator and Mrs. Thomas S. Martin, of "Scotlands," Albemarle county, and Dr. James A. Morrison, of Lynchburg.

General and Mrs. William Ruffin Cox are spending a part of the midwinter season down on their plantation in Lenoir county, N. C. They expect to return to Richmond Friday.

Kidney Ailment

I want every person who suffers with any form of kidney ailment, no matter how tedious, no matter how long it has lasted, no matter how many doctors they have consulted, no matter how serious the case, to give Munyon's Kidney Remedy a trial. You will be astonished to see how quickly it relieves all pains in the back, loins and groin caused by the kidneys. You will be surprised to see how quickly it reduces the swelling in the feet and legs, also puffiness under the eyes, after taking a few doses of this remedy. You will be delighted to see the color returning to your cheeks and feel the thrill of vigor and good cheer. If your urine is thick or milky, if it is pale and watery, if it contains sediments or brickdust, if it is highly colored or has an offensive smell, if you urinate frequently, you should persist in taking this remedy until all symptoms disappear. We believe this remedy has cured more serious kidney ailments than all the kidney medicines that have been compounded. Professor Munyon believes that the terrible death rate from Bright's Disease and Diabetes is unnecessary and will be greatly reduced by this remedy.

Go at once to your druggist and purchase a bottle of Munyon's Kidney Remedy. If it fails to give satisfaction I will refund your money. For sale by all druggists. Price 25c.

Let women of sixty use "beautifiers," if they think they need them.

But you, who are young and pretty—you should avoid such things as you would a pestilence.

All YOU need is a cake of Ivory Soap, a bowl of clean water and a good complexion brush.

Literary Entertainment.

The Literary Society of the Barton Heights High School has issued invitations for a lecture to be given in the assembly hall of the school this evening at 8 o'clock. The speaker will be Dr. Wilson, who holds the chair of English at William and Mary College. He will be introduced by Mr. E. L. Roden.

The Mothers' Club and parents of the children who form the Literary Society will be the guests of the evening. A special musical program will be rendered, of which Miss Hart will have several numbers.

Sixteen girls of the High School will give a cycle of old songs—"Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Sweet and Low," "My Heart's in the Highlands," "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton"; also "I Used to Believe in Fairies." Dr. Wilson's reputation as a speaker is such that all who are fortunate enough to hear him and this very attractive musical program may feel assured of a pleasant evening.

For Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. William Strother Smith, of Washington, was the guest of honor Wednesday afternoon at a very beautiful tea given by Mrs. George Craighead Cabell at her home in Colonial Avenue, Norfolk. The decorations in the drawing room were in white and yellow, jonquils and white flowers being used—yellow shaded candles and electric lights illuminated the entire lower floor of the Cabell residence. The centerpiece in the dining room consisted of a large bowl filled with magnolias, jonquils and asparagus ferns. Mrs. Cabell and Mrs. Smith received the guests, assisted by Mrs. Charles Holland, of Danville, Va., and Miss Jean Smith, of Pittsburg. Mrs. Hugh Page presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. McRae poured tea.

Those serving were Mrs. Blanche Campe, Mrs. Charles H. Wood, Miss Jane Barr, Miss Louise Ryan, Miss Sallie Beaman, Miss Katherine Grone, Miss Virginia Lynch and Miss Ellen Maury.

Kaufman—Block.

The home of Mrs. Henry Block, No. 1014 West Franklin Street, was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening at 7 o'clock, when her daughter, Miss Lillie Block, became the wife of Mr. J. Irving Kaufman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaufman. Rev. E. N. Calisch, D. D., officiated.

The house was handsomely decorated in palms, lilies and old rose azaleas and evergreens.

Miss Block, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Fred Block, of New York, wore a magnificent gown of white satin, trimmed in rose point lace, and carried a large bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Her sister, Mrs. Max Frank, who was her matron of honor, and the two bridesmaids, Miss Carrie Kaufman and Miss Rosa Block, wore exquisite costumes of pink chiffon and satin, and carried large bouquets of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Bert Kaufman, the groom's brother, was his best man, and Mr. Harry Levy, Mr. Irving Goodman, Mr. Lewis Kaufman and Mr. Maurice Block were ushers.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Max Frank, of Detroit, Mich.; Miss Rhea Virginia Frank, of Detroit, Mich.; Master Edwin Henry Frank, of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kaufman, of Colorado Springs; Mrs. Virginia Kaufman, of Colorado Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Block, of Gordonsville, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kaufman, of New York; Mrs. A. S. Tries, of New York; Mrs. Henry Wolf, of New York; Mr. and Mrs.

Schenck—Kasey.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BEDFORD CITY, VA., January 14.—Miss Beaulie Buford Kasey, the second daughter of Mrs. Fannie C. Kasey, was married to Mr. George Winston Schenck, of Spier's Ferry, Va., this afternoon at 7 o'clock, at St. John's Episcopal Church, in the presence of a large assemblage of guests. Rev. Dallas Tucker, of Harrisonburg, Va., officiating.

Miss Sadie Tucker, of Harrisonburg, presided at the organ.

Messrs. T. T. Oliver, John S. Burks, of Bedford City; Eugene Whitehurst and Charles Barnett, of Roanoke, were the ushers.

The maid of honor was Miss Louise Claiborne Kasey, the youngest sister of the bride.

The bridesmaids were Misses Lucille Ballard, Nora Burks Payne, of Lynchburg, and Florrie Clayton. The groomsmen were Messrs. Warren Barnett and Jack Fitzpatrick, of Roanoke, and William C. Ballard. Mrs. John S. Burks, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Master Whiston Ballard carried the ring.

The bride entered with her uncle, Professor Martin P. Burks, of Washington and Lee University, who gave her away. She was met at the steps of the rostrum by the groom and his best man and brother, Mr. Walter Schenck, of Roanoke.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Judge R. C. Burks, of the Virginia Supreme Court, a member of a large and prominent family.

Kimbrough—Scott.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LEWISTON, January 14.—A social event of great interest not only to this neighborhood, but to a wide circle of friends in different parts of Virginia and other Southern States, took place Tuesday in the marriage of Miss Alice Kimbrough, of Greenwood, Miss.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John F. Graham, of Ashland, Va. Just before the entrance of the bride, a procession a song was sung by Mr. Ernest Chewing.

The two sisters, Miss Abbie Scott, the bride, and Miss Pauline Scott, as maid of honor, entered together. They were met in front of the church by the groom and his best man, Mr. John R. Thurman, who also acted for the bride's father in giving her away.

The place from which the bride was married, and where the farewell luncheon was given by her aunts, Mrs. J. R. Thurman, and the Misses Scott, before the bride went to the happy pair for the South was "Bel-Air," the Colonial home of the family of the bride's grandmother, the Lewises, of "Broom," now the residence of the Misses Scott.

Mr. Kimbrough is a son of Judge A. McC. Kimbrough, of Greenwood, Miss., an alumnus of the University of Virginia.

Scott—Burton.

URBANNA, VA., January 14.—One of the prettiest nuptial events of the new year was the marriage of Miss Alma, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton, of this place, to Mr. Francis H. Scott, of Hinton, W. Va., son of the late F. H. Scott, of Dunnsville, Essex county, and grandson of the late A. F. Scott, who was solemnized at high noon in the Methodist Church in Urbanna. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mitchell Ware, of West Virginia, assisted by the bride's pastor, Rev. R. L. Busby. The church was beautifully and artistically decorated with evergreens, carnations and roses.

The couple left on the steamer for Palm Beach, Fla., where they will spend their honeymoon.

Ryland—Hawthorne.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SOUTH HILL, VA., January 14.—At the home of the bride's father, Mr. G. H. Hawthorne, who lives near town, his daughter, Miss Minnie Sue, and Mr. Lawrence Ryland were united in the bonds of wedlock by Rev. E. F. Hall. It was a quiet home affair, only a few relatives and friends being present.

Burk & Co.'s Great Stock Relief Unloading Sale

Maintains Its Prestige More Luminously Than Ever Before

You know the high quality standard ruling at this store and the square deal that attends every measure adopted and every transaction made within our doors; and when we announce that there is not a dollar's worth of "bought-for-the-purpose" merchandise on the counters; that our own and regular high-class stocks are thus recklessly sacrificed for no other purpose in the world than to clear shelves and counters of winter merchandise, and realize the capital invested—and when we further affirm and declare that every offering is bona fide, every value as given, every reduction true to the penny, the importance of attending this record-breaking sale at the earliest opportunity must appeal to any and every wide-awake discriminating economist throughout this whole community. That there will be another tremendous rush and crush here to-day and to-morrow goes without saying. Be among the early crowds for values and bargains never possible before, and not likely to come again in a hurry.
